

Heyns, Daniel (MDOC)

From: Heyns, Daniel (MDOC)
Sent: Thursday, March 13, 2014 4:23 PM
To: Muchmore, Dennis (GOV)
Subject: RE: FYI

I can always use one of those but not necessary. I know where you want to go. I will tone down my attack dogs, delay or cancel any fines and give Aramark time to solve the problems. I met with one of their honchos today and he gets the picture.

We were concerned about losing control of a joint and told them repeatedly with no improvement. Our corrective action was too harsh.

Let me know if you need more or just want to drink. I will watch it closely from here out.

Dan

From: Muchmore, Dennis (GOV)
Sent: Thursday, March 13, 2014 3:55 PM
To: Heyns, Daniel (MDOC)
Subject: RE: FYI

[REDACTED]

From: Heyns, Daniel (MDOC)
Sent: Thursday, March 13, 2014 2:38 PM
To: Muchmore, Dennis (GOV)
Subject: RE: FYI

Answer is no but I am working on it. Let me know when you want to get together to talk about it.

From: Muchmore, Dennis (GOV)
Sent: Thursday, March 13, 2014 10:21 AM
To: Heyns, Daniel (MDOC)
Subject: FYI

Do you feel you've got this under control? Seems like these attacks are always initiated by AFSCME, but I find it kind of unusual that this comes up on the heels of the escape so maybe it is MCO this time.

Legislators 'Shocked,' Disturbed' Over Aramark Report

Legislators overseeing the Department of Corrections (DOC) budget pledged today to bring up the state's new $145 million food services contract after concerns of food shortages, large staff turnover, inadequately trained personnel and sex with inmates have come to light.

<http://www.mirsnews.com/capsule.php?gid=4287#38741>